INDIVIDUAL SESSIONS & GROUP INSTRUCTION TO EMPOWER & INSPIRE YOU!

MAKING ROOM FOR

Spring

What have you been up to lately?

I've been making room for the things that I truly want to experience in my life. All winter long, I clarified and prioritized my intentions. I allowed myself to feel what it would feel like. I tried on (until I felt comfortable in) the belief that I deserve to experience all of these things. I opened myself to an even better manifestation than my thoughts would allow—I opened myself to the possibility of miracles. And I received synchronistic prompts to take action along the way, which is such fun!

Most importantly, I reached deep within myself to fully expand into this new energetic space. During dark, cold winter nights, I felt the energy growing and forming. As winter transformed into spring, I felt the winds of change (which I absolutely LOVE). Now, with "the encouragement of light against my being," (Hafiz, from The Gift) I am ready to open my heart and share with the world several exciting new prospects.

One of these areas of expansion is manifesting on the physical plane, literally as I write this. I am thrilled to share with you that my office space is about to expand: by the end of this April, my fabulous office partner, Rose Vanden Eynden, and I will have moved into a new office space in our current building that is larger, lighter, and better suited to the needs of our clients.

We are planning to move on Saturday, April 23, just one floor below where we are located now, to suite 107. This new space will be marvelous for our workshops, circles, and events—the universe couldn't have provided a more perfect solution!

MESSAGE CIRCLE EVENT with Rose Vanden Eynden, Joanne Franchina & Guest Mediums

Message circles are popular with groups and those who are new to mediumship readings—and no wonder!

They are fun and affordable, and allow one's friends and family members to participate. What happens in a message circle?

A handful of participants sit in a circle with a clairvoyant medium who provides a message, or mini-reading, for each person in turn. My office partner, Rose Vanden Eynden, and I have invited some of our favorite mediums in the area to participate, and we hope you will, too!

Friday, May 27, 7 – 9 pm.

$20; limited space, pre-registration required.*

Joanne Franchina & Rose Vanden Eynden, hosts; guest mediums.

To pre-register, email Rose at info@vandeneynden.biz.
Include your name, the number of reservations needed, your email address and telephone number, and how you heard about the event.

ONGOING EVENTS

NEW DAY, TIME & FORMAT: GROUP MEDITATION CIRCLE

The Inner Compass meditation circle is expanding—in time and place, scope, and fun! Each monthly circle now focuses on a specific theme. We will occasionally meet at other locations such as outdoor facilities, and enjoy a mix of energies when guest facilitators are able to join me in leading the circles.

The meditation circle remains open to everyone and free (although donations are much appreciated), so bring your friends and be prepared for an inspiring evening. Because of the spontaneous nature of the circle, I do ask that you sign up to receive the email reminders that will contain all of the relevant details, or be sure to check the Inner Compass website before you venture out to join us! March's meditation circle focuses on posture and movement; future circles will feature meditations incorporating nature, sound, breath, chanting, healing, creativity, and much more—see the website for details.

MEDITATIONS FOR HEALTH & HEALING

We will explore meditations that promote the healing process for specific purposes, such as relaxation and stress relief, focused healing visualizations, and clearing resistance from the mental, emotional, and spiritual ties to physical symptoms.

Wednesday, April 27, 7 - 9 pm. (4th Wednesdays)

Inner Compass Offices, Suite 107.

Free/Donation.

Open to everyone but pre-registration is recommended; contact Joanne if interested in participating.

BEST YEAR EVER! LIFE COACHING

CIRCLE with Joanne Franchina

In this ongoing coaching circle, you'll work with your own real-life goals and priorities, and get lots of individualized support, in applying the key manifestation processes of intention, attraction, and action, to help you create the year (and life!) of your dreams. This is group coaching at its best, and it covers every major area of your life: it's like having your very own personal life coach, and sharing her with a small circle of your friends.

DECLUTTER YOUR ENVIRONMENT

Make room for the things you want in your life by getting rid of the things you no longer need. We will discuss the key principles behind how your energy affects, and is affected by, your living and working spaces. And we will cover practical considerations of clearing clutter, including: the clutter test; how to get started; what to do when you are busy or stressed; and letting go of your "stuff."

* Wednesday April 13, 7 - 9 pm.

INVEST IN YOUR FINANCIAL WELL-BEING

To improve your financial situation, you have to do the inner work of changing how you think and feel about money, and then you have to do the outer work of managing your money in practical ways. First you'll build your awareness of your financial situation by identifying areas of potential improvement in how you handle money now. You'll identify the limiting beliefs that are most affecting your life and how to change those beliefs.

You'll also learn to develop new money skills step-by-step that will secure your financial future.

* Wednesday May 11, 7 - 9 pm.
