INDIVIDUAL SESSIONS & GROUP INSTRUCTION TO EMPOWER & INSPIRE YOU!

1 + 1 = 11

Is this the new math the schools have been teaching my children? Is it some new form of numerology? No, and no. "1 + 1 = 11" simply expresses an underlying concept of holism and synergy—that is, "the whole is greater than the sum of its parts."

1 + 1 = 11. I just LOVE this expression! Ever since I saw it in a book by Marty Neumeier titled The Brand Gap, I became fascinated with its potential applications and adopted it as a motto for myself and my coaching practice. As you might expect from a life coach with a background in quality assurance, I continually search for better ways to do things, and for ways to do better things. And human synergy—collaborating with people who have complementary products, services, skills, or knowledge—is a powerful way to find both. I call it collaborative community.

I have been consciously building such a community in support of my coaching practice. The universe has responded graciously with ideas for expanding my offerings, as well as colleagues to help bring these initiatives to fruition. The best part is that I haven't had to look farther than my own back yard! I am so pleased to announce some wonderful new events that Inner Compass is presenting to our community in collaboration with Rose Vanden Eynden, the best office partner ever, and Jaccolin Franchina, wayshower extraordinaire.

Rose and I hosted a Clairvoyant Message Circle Event in February that featured talented mediums from our community, and it was fun! Several people brought friends or family members to get readings together. What are message circles? Participants sit in small groups and each circle is assigned a medium, who provides a mini-reading for each person in turn. Sound like fun? We're planning another event for early summer.

This spring, Rose, Jaccolin and I are bringing internationally renowned mediums Sharon Anne Klingler and Gretchen Clark to share their wisdom with our community of seekers. Sharon's teachings have greatly influenced my development. I have attended her week-long intensive workshops in Lily Dale, New York, for many years, and she is on the faculty of Fellowships of the Spirit, where I received ministerial ordination and certifications in mediumship and spiritual healing. I have received illuminating guidance from my spiritual teachers during the powerful imagery processes that are a core component of her classes. I'm sure you will, too! continued

The mathematics of collaboration is nothing less than

And I can hardly wait for you to meet Gretchen—she holds a special place in my heart, as I spent parts of my childhood summers at her home in Lily Dale. After I was married, it was Gretchen who convinced my then-skeptical husband of the validity of mediumship in a single reading. She is a great teacher, too; one of her students drives six hours each way to attend her weekly mediumship development circle. You won't want to miss her classes either!

1 + 1 = 11. A little collaboration can have a big impact: it has enabled Rose, Jaccolin and I to jointly offer to our community these events of significant relevance and quality—plus they're fun. We're also planning other offerings that we will share with you soon; in the meantime, if you have any ideas about events that you would like to see in our community, let us know. We'd love to hear from you.
